IX. COMMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC

Agenda Items other than Public Hearing Matters

Edgefield County Code of Ordinances, Chapter 2, Section 2-52, Rule 23. Public comments: Any citizen of the county may sign up to speak at any regular meeting of the Edgefield County Transportation Committee on matters pertaining to county services and operations, but not on personnel matters. Interested citizens may sign an agenda list maintained by the ECTC prior to each regular meeting. Citizens wishing to speak must indicate the subject and purpose for which they seek to address the committee. Each citizen who gives notice as described in this section shall be eligible to speak for a maximum of three minutes; provided that the time allotted to each speaker may otherwise depend on the number of speakers to be recognized. Additionally, the period for citizen comments shall be limited to a total of 20 minutes, with such comment period being placed on the agenda of each regular ECTC meeting at the conclusion of new business. All citizens participating in the citizen comment period shall be subject to recognition by the presiding officer and shall address the presiding officer directly. The comment period shall not constitute a debate period between committee members and members of the public. Written comments may be submitted to the ECTC at any time during regular business hours of the county or by U.S. Mail. All public comments shall be retained for a period of three years and shall be considered separate from the minutes of any council meeting.
